

FRESHMAN TRANSITION PROGRAM : How Do I Know What Kind of Financial Aid I Will Receive?

CCBC will not send financial aid award letters until Summer 2021.
PLEASE DO NOT WAIT TO RECEIVE THIS NOTIFICATION FOR FINANCIAL PLANNING

- x If you haven't already, make sure to file a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) as soon as possible at www.fafsa.gov.
  - o Include BOTH the CCBC and TU school codes:
    - %o CCBC – 002063
    - %o TU- 002099

- x Begin planning for the upcoming semester financially by estimating your award amounts and borrowing needs:
  - o If you have already filed a FAFSA, return to www.fafsa.gov
    - %o Log in using your (student's) FSA ID and Password
    - %o Review your "FAFSA Submission Summary"
    - %o Review this information carefully. Under the heading of "Eligibility Overview" will be your estimated Pell Grant award. Make note of this amount. Remember to divide this amount in half to consider only the fall portion

- o Maryland Residents
  - %o If you filed your FAFSA early, you may be eligible for an award from the Maryland Higher Education Commission (MHEC).
  - %o Log on to the MDCaps system to direct all awards to CCBC to review the amounts
    - o <https://mdcaps.mhec.state.md.us/>
  - %o Make note of any fall award amounts
    - o NOTE: Award amounts will likely decrease when directed to CCBC, as they will be based on CCBC's reduced cost of attendance. This is unavoidable. These award amounts may be revised at a later date to the original university amount at the discretion of MHEC. Plan for the revised, smaller award. An increase is not guaranteed.
