To promote the generalmental health of Towson University students by allowing them the opportunity to grieve and be available for their families immediately surritioned in glosing a loved one

Students should notify their instructors of the death and impending absence prior to leaving campus or shortly thereafter

All students who opt to use the Bereavement Procedure an have up to academidays off surrounding he loss of a loved only nexcused absences already prescribed in the course syllabus should not be used in congruence with the Bereavement Procedure. Significant relationships can include it are not limited to the following individuals:

• parents ordgabuardians

:

• sibling(s)

:

• significant other, pouse or dgal ivil union partner

:

- uncle(s) oruant(s)
- grandparent(s)
- cousin(s)
- niece(sor nephew(s)
- legalin-law(s)
- step-Relationindividual(s)
- child(ren)or individual(s) inwhich the studen thas legal guardianship ver

() :

Students should be allotted two days, in addittoe to reemourning days, to travel to and from their respective cations.

Travel days will be calendar days, not academic days. Students opting to use the Bereavement Procedure anappeato the professoand/or the department chair if more days are needed. These requests will be handled on a conserve basis.

Page | 2

Students should notify their instructors of the death and impending absence prior to leaving campus or shortly thereafter.healowanceof daysgivenfor missed academiwork should be equato the number of days excused from classe student is responsible for working with the professor to make up these assignments missed should not be deducted ing if they are completed in the extended period of allotted tranculty are not required to accommodate requests for additionabates.

Proof of Death:

: